Bulletin No. 6

My Fellow Legionnaires,

Several of us just returned from a fun and productive American Legion Washington Conference in Washington DC at the Washington Hilton where we attended National Commission and Committee meetings. While there we Stormed the Hill visiting our Senators, Congressmen and Representatives pushing the American Legion Legislative Agenda for 2023. Thank you to Team Connecticut Legionnaires who made these visits and shared our agenda. The American Legion Legislative Agenda and Testimony of National Commander Troiola are available on Legion.org. Great visiting DC but it's nice to be back home.

Here we are, it is the 2nd of March already so please let's stay on course and strive to reach our goal of 100%. Yes, it can be done with TEAMWORK and PARTICIPATION (ALL HANDS-ON DECK) along with a little determination and effort I know we can get there. Let's all do our part and make this happen!

Please let me remind everyone that the submission of Consolidated Post Reports and Post Data Forms deadline is coming up fast so please let's get them submitted, Thank you!

Department Oratorical Contest is this Saturday and many programs and events are fast approaching such as Annual Kids Walks by our Districts, Our Annual Family Bowling Tournament, State Police Youth Week, Boys State and Golf Tournament, Please keep an eye on our Department Bulletin and Calendar for upcoming events and please do your best to participate and support, Thank you!

WE SHOULD ALL REMEMBER THAT THE FOUNDATION OF OUR FOUR PILLARS ARE THE POSTS. LET'S DO THIS TOGETHER AND MAKE THE FOUNDATION FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CONNECTICUT STRONG FOR TODAY, TOMORROW AND THE FUTURE!

SR VICE COMMANDER

MESSAGE

Legionnaires of Connecticut-

I would like to acknowledge Doug Sousa, president of Outdoor Sports Expo Group, who invited the Department Membership Commission to set up a booth at the annual Springfield Sportsmen's Show at the Big E. We met not only some great Legionnaires but quite a few veterans to whom we gave QR cards. We look forward to next year!

The Mid-Winter conference has come and gone, hopefully, many of you not only attended, but took some new and/or useful information back to your Post. Remember, the information you learned should be shared amongst all your fellow Legionnaires. As I have said in many meetings, if you have found some gold nugget that helps your Post, whether in the community, schools, fellow VSOs or membership, you have an obligation to share your story. The idea may not work with everyone, but if even one Post benefits, you have done a great service to The American Legion.

By now, each district has either scheduled or held a revitalization. I am always willing to help make phone calls or knock on doors, because I love talking to veterans and fellow Legionnaires. Remember to include Post 200 members in your area, they are veterans and Legionnaires as well. Right now, we are at about 56% to quota for our Post 200 comrades. I want to see that at 80% by June 1st, and we can do it.

This also brings my last point this month, and that is Buddy Checks. If a member has fallen on hard times, or is simply not able to pay their dues, ask your Post to pay their dues. Especially a long-time member. Then find out what we can do to help them. Between the Soldiers, Sailors & Marines Fund, National Emergency Fund, and the Temporary Financial Assistance Fund, we can find a way to help. Posts can hold fundraising events, help our comrade with chores or simply be there when they need a shoulder to lean on. THIS is The American Legion, and it is my "Why" (why I joined The American Legion).

What is your "Why"?

Remember, I am only a text, call or email away. Please don't hesitate to contact me for any help or ideas.

Bulletin No. 7

Washington Conference

The Washington Conference was a huge success, it was great to finally get back to Washington and visit our legislators. It has been three years since we were in Washington and while the attendance was not as robust as we would have liked, everyone participated, and we were able to visit all of our legislators and convey to them what our agenda was for the year. If you want to see what the American Legion's legislative agenda is just look in the bulletin or go to <https://www.legion.org/legislative/agenda> to download a copy. Please pass this along to all our members as these issues are very important to our veterans. We all should be contacting our legislators and letting them know what's important to us.

Legion lines out priorities for 118th Congress

The American Legion

JAN 31, 2023

Funding, oversight and fulfillment of the landmark Honoring Our Promise to Address Comprehensive Toxics (PACT) Act and heightened attention/access to mental health care for veterans are among the legislative priorities The American Legion is presenting to Congress during the Washington Conference Feb. 26 – March 1.

The PACT Act, signed into law last August, accomplished one of The American Legion's highest agenda items for 2022. The measure expands VA health-care services and disability benefits eligibility for more than 3.5 million veterans exposed to burn pits in the global war on terrorism, along with others with health-care conditions attributable to toxic contamination during military service. Properly funded implementation and oversight are the next steps, the Legion argues.

Also on the organization's radar for the first session of the 118th Congress are protection from predatory exploitation of veterans seeking help applying for VA benefits or Camp Lejeune Justice Act lawsuit damages. A more level playing field for National Guard veterans using their GI Bill benefits, support for Afghan allies of the U.S. military and an updated U.S. Flag Code are also included in this year's message to lawmakers.

American Legion National Commander Vincent J. "Jim" Troiola will deliver the Legion's testimony before a joint session of the House and Senate Committees on Veterans' Affairs on March 1.

The following subjects are included in the testimony, which can be downloaded or printed as trifold brochure, as well:

PACT Act: Implementation & Oversight

Passage of the SFC Heath Robinson PACT Act in the 117th Congress ensured millions of toxic-exposed veterans will now have access to healthcare and compensation they rightfully deserve. VA estimates there will be up to 7 million new disability claims filed, due to eligibility expansion under the PACT Act and that the claims backlog will increase to 450,000 by October 2023. The efforts put forth by the VA workforce to reduce claims backlogs in recent years have been admirable, but substantial backlogs of hundreds of thousands of claims for sustained periods of time are not acceptable. It is imperative that VA fully leverage the resources made available in the PACT Act to assist in the continued modernization of information technology systems, as well as the hiring of additional employees to ensure veterans claims are adjudicated in a timely manner. The American Legion urges Congress to provide necessary oversight and funding to ensure VA has the resources needed to properly implement this legislation.

seamless transition between them. Modernizing electronic health records, veteran-centric access standards, and a transparent online scheduling system for VHA-provided care and community care alike are all essential to ensuring veterans receive the care they deserve. The means by which VA delivers care may change, but one thing will not: VA should continue to provide the best care anywhere to our nation's veterans.

Protect Veterans from Predatory Actors

America's veterans are targeted by predatory actors that seek to profit from an array of benefits that have been rightfully earned by those who have served our nation. From claims companies that charge exorbitant fees (for services provided free by veterans service organizations) to lawyers vying for billions of dollars set aside for victims of diseases associated with contaminants, veterans and their families are met by promises of large payouts if they agree to surrender substantial portions of their benefits. Predatory actors often attempt to overwhelm veterans with aggressive marketing tactics and complicated contracts. The American Legion urges Congress to oppose legislation that elevates the standing of unaccredited claims companies or legitimizes predatory practices that target veterans and encourages Congress to impose a cap on legal services provided in association with the Camp Lejeune Justice Act.

Concurrent Receipt

Currently, 42,000 military retirees with combat-related injuries qualify for DoD retirement pay as well as VA disability compensation. However, for retired veterans with disability ratings less than 50%, the VA compensation is deducted from their DoD retirement pay. The American Legion strongly supports ending this unfair policy. The Major Richard Star Act would repeal this draconian offset, allowing disabled veterans to concurrently receive their retirement pay and disability compensation.

Guard & Reserve GI Bill Parity

Despite the same duties, National Guard and Reserve servicemembers are deprived of education benefits that active-duty servicemembers enjoy. According to current law, National Guard and Reserve servicemembers only accrue GI Bill entitlement when called to active duty under federal orders. When National Guard and Reserve servicemembers are activated under state orders, they do not accrue eligibility for Post 9/11 GI Bill benefits, as do their active-duty counterparts. The American Legion believes that every day in uniform counts and urges Congress to recognize the service of National Guard and Reserve servicemembers as eligible for the GI Bill.

AMERICANISM

DEFINITIONS

AMERICANISM is love of America; loyalty to her institutions as the best yet devised by man to secure life, liberty, individual dignity and happiness; and the willingness to defend our Country and Flag against all enemies foreign and domestic.

AMERICANISM is a vital, active, living force. Americanism means peace, strength, the will and the courage to live as free men in a free land. It means a friendly hand to people everywhere who respect our institutions and our thinking. It is not a word; it is a cause, a way of life, a challenge and a hope in this world of turmoil.

AMERICANISM is a way of life, the best way of life ever known.

AMERICANISM is an ideal of loyal patriotism, religious tolerance, righteous freedom, fearless courage, honest integrity, abiding faith in the commanding destiny of the United States and a fathomless love for the principles, which led our forefathers to found this country.

AMERICANISM is a complete and unqualified loyalty to the ideals of government set forth in the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution of the United States. It is respect for, and ready obedience to, duly constituted authority and the laws of the land. It is freedom without license, religion without bigotry, charity without bias or race hatred, love of flag, and readiness to defend that for which it stands against every alien subversive influence without or within.

AMERICANISM is an unfailing love of country, loyalty to its institutions and ideals; eagerness to defend it against all enemies; individual allegiance to the Flag; and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and posterity.

Should We Bring Back Victory Gardens?

Victory gardens gave Americans on the homefront a sense of purpose while providing food to the nation during a time of need. Should they make a comeback? by Natalie LaVolpe, Farmer’s Almanac.

During World War II the nation fell on hard times. With fresh fruits and vegetables in short supply, food needed to be rationed and the government ultimately turned to the citizens to do their part to keep the nation fed. Families on the home front were encouraged to “put their idle land to work” and to produce “victory” gardens to combat the food shortage.

In 1943, nearly forty percent of all fruits and vegetables grown in the US were grown in victory gardens. There were gardens planted in backyards, empty lots, and on the top of city rooftops. Neighbors and communities worked together and formed cooperations. Even schools got involved to provide supplemental food for lunches. An estimated 20 million victory gardens were planted, with about 9–10 million tons of fruits or vegetables harvested. Even Eleanor Roosevelt took part by planting her own victory garden at the White House in 1943.

Fast Forward to Today. The food supply and state of health in our country are once again facing new challenges. As a nation, we do not consume enough fruits and vegetables. A large portion of our food makes long journeys before even hitting our tables, losing nutrients along the way. A sizable percentage of our food is grown with pesticides. And rising food prices (especially for organic food) only exacerbates the problem. Today, because many have concerns about the quality of our food, home gardening is making a resurgence.

Here are some compelling reasons why you should consider starting your own victory garden this year: Growing your own fresh fruits and vegetables is a great way to stretch your food budget. -Homegrown vegetables provide readily-available nutrition (every day a vegetable is off the vine it loses its health benefits). -No harmful chemicals are sprayed on your veggies. -It would provide fresh air and outdoor exercise for the whole family. -Forges bonding experiences for family and community members. -Allows you to control your food supply and be more self-sufficient. -Gardening is a great activity to help relieve stress and improve sleep quality. -Statistically, gardeners live longer!
